

PROJECT NARRATIVE

This project consists of the demolition of the existing residence which no longer meets the needs of a growing family, including support housing for extended family members (the ADU).

The new residence largely replaces the existing footprint with slight expansion in several directions. The intent is to minimize the impact of the residence on the existing character of the neighborhood.