Mr. Examiner – The parties will soon be filing, for your consideration and approval, a joint motion pursuant to the Hearing Examiner Rules of Procedure 204 to stay the proceedings. In short, Mr. Miller (pro se) and the City are very close to resolving their dispute. Additional information will be contained in the joint motion. Thank you.

Dear Mr. Miller:

Thank you for yesterday's short e-mail. I am certainly willing to consider a "pause" in the process, but I need a little more information to work with. (By the way, a "pause" in a quasi-judicial proceeding is normally referred to as a "stay.")

Please briefly tell me how long a stay you want and why you want a stay.

Once I receive your response, I will want to allow the City a short time period in which to comment on your stay request. I will then make my decision to stay or not to stay the proceedings.

I look forward to receiving your response.

Respectfully,

Dear Principal Parties:

Attached please find two items: A scheduling guidance letter for the Miller appeal; and a copy of the newly issued Hearing Examiner Rules of Procedure.

I await your responses to the letter. Please remember that when communicating with me regarding this appeal, your correspondence (be it e-mail or traditional letter) must be limited to procedural matters only and must be cross-copied to the opposing party. Using the "Reply to All" option on your e-mail system will assure that the opposing party is properly copied.
