

Critical Compliance Narrative

Through our application for a critical area review 1 we will show our activities are exempt from the development standards . Our reconstruction of an existing legally established structure that was built in 1991 based on building permit records and king county parcel information. We will also follow the seasonal limitations on land clearing, grading, filling, and foundation work described in section 19.07.160\(F\)\(2\) shall apply.